

SPRING 2018 E-BULLETIN

Praise The Lord! Welcome to the Spring edition of RRF E bulletin; I trust you will find the messages, information and photographs interesting, stimulating and profitable.

Unlike Apostle Paul, who asked that the books and parchments he had left behind in Troas, together with his coat, be brought to him the next time Timothy came to visit him in prison, too many of us don't read and certainly not willing to write.

One project that is in progress is the production of a brief history of RRF in time for the main October Jubilee services. It is important that we chronicle history especially as we live it for its verbatim and therefore more credible and impactful.

We are called to be witnesses and there is no better story teller than people with firsthand knowledge of what took place. Furthermore, having more than one story teller makes the story more authentic because it can be checked and cross checked by the various witnesses.

Heaven invented writing and keeping of books. Throughout the bible, the greatest book of all on earth, we read on countless occasions of the work of scribes. The book of Revelation also tell us about the various books that were seen open in heaven from whence the saints would be rewarded and the sinner judged.

Let this article spur you, especially ministers, to read and write more than you have ever done before. Stop making excuses for not reading and for not writing.

The internet is awash with articles, books and reading materials on every subject imaginable. Some of these reading materials are dangerous and written to confuse, corrupt and deceive so it's even more important than ever before that the servants of God and the church write and make available good wholesome truth and sound doctrine.

Reading brings depth and breadth of knowledge. Listening brings the anointing. Watching brings emulation and implementation. Humble people also read for no one knows everything.

In 2 Timothy 4:13, as quoted above, Apostle Paul is in prison in Rome with by now no prospect of being released. In fact he knows his days are few for he knows he will be executed. Yet he asks for the books so he could deepen his understanding and widen his knowledge. The parchments he would use to write down his thoughts for posterity.

Reading also enlarge our vocabulary, improve our spelling and writing skills, help us with pronunciation, as well as training the mind and keeping it occupied.

Teachers and preachers that don't read are often repetitive, shallow and boring. I have never read fully a novel nor a play not even William Shakespeare because I am not keen on imaginary stories however well written. So, I am not advocating one reads anything. Smith Wigglesworth a Pentecostal pioneer of the late 19th and 20th Century was illiterate in his young days and only learned to read and write in later life after being born again. He never read books, magazines not even newspapers. In fact he would not allow a newspaper in his home. Yet he was an avid reader of the Bible and it was very obvious whenever he got up to speak. He flowed in the word and in the Spirit for he was full of the word and faith.

Smith Wigglesworth once said about the importance of reading the scriptures: "It is as we feed on the Word and meditate on the message it contains that the Spirit of God can vitalise that which we have received, and bring forth through us the word of knowledge that will be as full of power and life as when He, the Spirit of God, moved upon holy men of old and gave them these inspired Scriptures".

Jesus aged 12 was in the temple reasoning with doctors of the law, scribes and scholars and they asked how he got such knowledge and understanding.

Finally, I pray I have stirred you to read and write and that you will do so this year starting today.

*The Lord's servant
Apostle Lloyd Denny*

MESSAGE FROM THE GENERAL OVERSEER

Dearlly Beloved and Fellow Labourers in the Kingdom of God,

Greetings in the most exalted name given under Heaven whereby we must be saved, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour who loved us and gave himself for us that he may purify us from all lawlessness.

Satan is not wasting time to bring so many to shame and reproach and in immortalities and perverse and spiritual wickedness. Wickedness, terrorism of nations that are in bondage to Satan. Let us not be carried away with the spirit of Multifaiith.

Let us pray earnestly for the unity of the Faith. This must be the true purpose of every God given ministry while we seek to have fellowship with those who walk in the Light of God's word.

Let us adorn the Doctrine of God, our Saviour in all things. This is well pleasing to the Lord and confirm by the Law and the Prophets. Let us avoid the sleepiness of this Laodicean age and the virgins who fell asleep at midnight. As heirs and joint heirs with Christ, it is given to us to redeem time and to restore.

We need to keep our assembly holy without strife, without spots in our feast that God can bring in souls to be prepared and filled with his Holy Spirit and be ready when the Bridegroom chooses to call to the marriage supper.

I cannot come to myself to believe 50 years. The revival that has been a revolution in my life and ministry and to so many places and people. I cannot write all my thoughts and desires but I am trusting the Great Shepherd to give us the grace and to feed us so that we may hold the mystery of the Faith in a pure conscience (1 Timothy 3:9), for there is nothing greater that can help the fallen and lift him from the place he has fallen and to pray that within the Fellowship, we come to the unity of the Faith and many eyes would be open to this great Light, this great Truth that the Gospel of Jesus Christ reveals that God himself is our Salvation.

May God's peace and love and grace be multiplied to you.

Your Brother and Servant

Apostle G T Mullings
